WORSHIP & STUDY

—SUNDAYS 9:45–10:45

What Does It Mean to Be a Sanctuary City? today in Pope Hall: How has our national church responded to the issue of sanctuary over the years? Come hear Marcela Diaz, executive director of Somos Un Pueblo Unido, and Mary Ann Lundy, co-chair of Mission and Social Justice answer these questions and others you may have.

Living the Questions January 22–March 5 in McFarland Chapel: The adult study which picks up again. In this series we will probe some of the questions you may have about faith and life and/or raise questions you never thought about. In any case, each class will be stimulating and instructional—no pat answers but open-minded and thoughtful. Presentations will be given by some of today's leading religious voices. Today we'll discuss questions surrounding the Kingdom of God. When we pray the Lord's prayer we are praying "Thy Kingdom come..." what is this Kingdom and what might be some of the implications if it actually came. Some of the other topics in the seven-week series will include prayer, social justice, compassion and mystery. Come, join us.

—UPCOMING SUNDAYS

Roundhouse Issues January 29–February 26 in Pope Hall: The 60-day session has begun at the Roundhouse and many crucial issues are being discussed and debated that will affect our lives as New Mexicans.

►Those who are able may stand

The moments before worship are a transition from “getting here” to “being here.” Take the opportunity to listen to the prelude and quiet one’s mind and become open to the spirit.

►WELCOME AND CALL TO WORSHIP

*bold in unison
from Psalm 27:1–4
inclusive language translation
by Bill Humphreys*

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

One thing I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after:
to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in God's temple.

For God will hide me in shelter in the day of trouble and conceal me under the cover of God's tent; God will set me high on a rock.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud, be gracious to me and answer me!

OPENING PRAYER

bold in unison

You call us,
Wanderer of seashores and sidewalks,
inviting us to sail out of our smug harbors
into the uncharted waters of faith to wander off from our predictable paths to follow You into the unpredictable footsteps of the kingdom;
to leave the comfort of our homes and accompany you into the uncomfortable neighborhoods we usually avoid.

As we wait,
in our simple, sometimes crazy,
constantly uncertain lives,
speak to us, Spirit of Grace:
of that hope which is our anchor;
of that peace which is our rock;
of that grace which is our refuge.
Amen.

♪ Holy Jesus, every day
keep us in the narrow way;
and when earthly things are past,
bring our ransomed souls at last
where they need no star to guide,
where no clouds thy glory hide.

MUSIC & ART

TGIF Concerts every Friday night at 5:30PM welcome the congregation and the community to hear music rung, played, or sung. Freewill offering.

Please visit the Timeless Treasures on display in the Back Pew Gallery through Sunday, January 22. The History Committee has put together a display for the 150th Celebration of some of the church's historical objects and furniture.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We invite the congregation to find rest and renewal for Sabbath on Mondays. Church rooms are available for personal meditation and reflection, but not for meetings, and no staff will be available on that day.

Computer Helper/Update Tuesday on February 14: Krista will be back answering your computer and device questions from 3:00–4:00 on the second Tuesday of the month and from 4:00–5:00 will talk and answer questions about organizing and storing your photos.

Please plan to attend the Annual All Church Retreat on Saturday morning, February 18, from 8:00AM until 12:30PM. The retreat will be led this year by Jane Knight who is a spiritual director and a potter. This I Am the Clay contemplative retreat will meet in Pope Hall and will include the various aspects of working with clay and how that relates to our spiritual lives. Participants will experience hands-on work with hand molding and shaping the clay. Although participants do not work on the potter's wheel, Jane will bring her wheel to demonstrate the metaphor of "I Am the Clay." The retreat will close with a communion service in McFarland Chapel.

Earth Care Tidbit of the Week:

Rising temperatures could make extreme rainfall events occur up to five times more often across the US and drop up to 70% more rain. Heavy downpours have already increased most notably in the Northeast by 71%.

PRAYERS AND PRAISE

Notify the church office 982.8544 or office@fpcsantafe.org to add a name to our prayer list.

We grieve with Kurt, Scott and Mark Ollmann on the death of their mother Janet Spencer Ollmann on January 17.

We continue to pray for Nancy Ruoff, Julia Hudson's great-nephew Brandon Main, Janice Mayer's father Russell, Linda Trujillo's grandniece Brianna, Dick Fallis, Jeff Baker, Ayla Wolff, Dr. Ronald Shumaker, Leo Krulitz, Sheldon Thompson, and Tony Herrera.

We pray for our partners in ministry: the Church of the Holy Faith and the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis; the Sagua la Grande Church—our brothers and sisters in Cuba; and Westminster Presbyterian Church.

MISSION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Our time at the shelter is this week. We need a couple more workers in the service sector of Shelter Night tonight, Sunday, January 22, and Monday, January 23! Please check the sign-up book in the lobby. We're also extending our 150th festivities in January to Pete's Place, 2801 Cerrillos Road. The evening of January 25, as part of Shelter Week, we've planned a 150th Birthday Party at Pete's Place. After the nutritious dinner we are cooking for the guests, we'll serve birthday cake and ice cream. To make it a true birthday party, the 150th Task Force is asking for your donation of new clothing items for Pete's guests that evening. Donated items of new, warm long-sleeved women's pullover shirts in sizes medium and large, men's and women's socks, gloves, and knitted caps can be placed in the large birthday box located in the church lobby. Please be generous with your donations. Pete's guests are in need of warm clothing during Santa Fe's cold winter weather.

Meet and Pray for Your Mission Co-Workers

Rev. Nadia Ayoub Ukraine

Nadia serves as a trainer in an early childhood education program that serves as an outreach of the Reformed Church in Capath, Ukraine, to the Roma people who formerly were called Gypsies. The Roma are one of the most marginalized groups in Europe. Nadia says, "I believe that teaching the very little ones about God's love for them is very essential and important in building a Christ-like character."
