Lectio Divina is a form of contemplative prayer in which we listen to God speaking to us through the Word. We will seek the Holy Spirit’s guidance while reading a passage from Matthew several times, focusing on a different aspect of listening with each reading. These sessions will take us deeper into scripture, leading us to a more personal understanding of how Jesus’ words apply specifically to our lives today. This serves as an introduction to what we may want to continue in our spiritual practice throughout the remainder of Lent. Facilitated by Spiritual Director Jeannie Bowman.

Rev. Dr. Harry Eberts III

Holy God, We Praise Your Name

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

You are invited to come forward to light a prayer candle
during the time of meditation.

There is a Balm in Gilead (verse 1)

No. 20, from 60 Pièces dévotionelles
by Dom Paul Benoit, O.S.B.

We Give Thee but Thine Own (verse 4)

As we offer our gifts to you, O God, may we not stand by thinking we need only watch you go to work.
But may we join you in feeding the hungry,
in offering a welcome to outsiders,
and building communities of peace and justice.
This we pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Today in Pope Hall after the 11:00 Worship Service: Creation Care of First Presbyterian Church invites you to a discussion of Presbyterian Church (USA) actions on climate change led by Elder Bill Bray of Woodlands Presbyterian Church, Houston. Sandwiches will be served.

The Facilities Committee has continually worked to improve and upgrade our sound/hearing systems in the sanctuary. For several years we have been equipped with what is commonly called “the loop”. We have provided information about it and its use with either your own hearing aids, or with the ear buds or earphones we provide. Most modern hearing aids can use this by simply pushing a button on them, but your provider must activate the option. We urge anyone who still has difficulty hearing in the sanctuary to try this equipment. The ushers will be making a new effort to see that they are out at each service and they can help you with them. Information about this is also available in the Lobby.

Circle Sundays! 4th Sunday of the month—9:45 to 10:45 in Pope Hall. Come and learn what they do, how they work with each other to support the ministries of FPC, and share ideas on how we can further meet the needs of the congregation. February 24 — Mission Circle, March 24 — Wisdom Circle

When women are released from Cibola Detention Center in Grants, they only have the clothes on their backs, and are often traveling to different states to reside with their sponsors. There is a box in the lobby for collection of airline-size toiletries, clean and fairly new backpacks, snacks for traveling, reusable water bottles, new wash cloths, wet wipes, combs or brushes and other travel items that women would need. Please help their journeys go smoother by donating. The full list of requested items is by the box. Thanks, Judy Crawford

The Church Garage will be closed on Monday, February 18, while the door is being replaced.
