MISSION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE
Sunday, May 5th we will have a great opportunity to hear Mission Co-Worker Rev. Sarah Henken from Colombia preach at both services and talk to us more informally during Adult Education. The youth will be particularly interested as one of Sarah’s jobs in Colombia is to be in charge of the YAV (Young Adult Volunteer) program. She will also update us on the challenges of establishing a lasting peace.

Sunday, May 5th will also be shopping day for art and crafts in the dining room during the 9:45 hour.
Carolyn Stupin will be selling inexpensive necklaces made in Africa, Liz Hinds will be selling craft items benefiting Friendship Bridge in Guatemala, and the Youth Connection and their parents will be selling the art items they have in order to raise money for their trip to the Triennium this summer. Come shop early for Mother’s Day! If you miss May 5th, items will also be for sale May 10th after the TGIF Concert.

This Sunday, April 27th will be a chance to sign a petition asking Wells Fargo bank to divest from for-profit prisons. Our national church took the lead on divesting from private prisons several years ago. See the letter on the lobby table or talk with Rev. Jim Brown or Judy Crawford after morning service for more information and a chance to sign the petition.

ACTS II ADULT EDUCATION
March 31-May 19, in McFarland Chapel Are you half asleep, mistaking your current state for wakefulness? If you are sleep living, chances are you will find that this class is just what you are looking for!
The March-to-May Acts II class will focus on how to be awake to God’s presence in your life, to remove prayer and spiritual practice from whatever box you may have stashed them. Spiritual Directors Christine Vogel and Jeannie Bowman will explore a look at the larger possibilities, using Jane Vennard’s book Fully Awake and Truly Alive as a guide for journeying toward a fully awake life.

We are such spendthrifts with our lives, the trick of living is to slip on and off the planet with the least fuss you can muster. I’m not running for sainthood. I just happen to think that in life we need to be a little like the farmer, who puts back into the soil what he takes out. Paul Newman

WELCOME

PRELUDE

>CALL to WORSHIP

bold in unison

It is good to give thanks to God; God’s goodness will last forever.

This is the day that God has made, Let is rejoice and be glad in it.

Those who come believing Are blessed in the house of God.

Light has shone on our darkness: Celebrate this in the house of prayer.

HYMN 255

O Sons and Daughters, Let Us Sing

OPENING PRAYER

bold in unison

In the light of your word and your call to care for creation, we come to say sorry, God.

We’re sorry for the times we’ve messed up, sorry for bad decisions we’ve made, sorry for the people we’ve hurt, sorry for damaging your world.

In silence, we seek your forgiveness for ourselves and healing for the world.

—moment of quiet—

Listen to what God says to us:

“I made the heavens and the earth.
I call you to be good servants and responsible stewards.
Come and work with me.
I will be with you.”

Amen.

RESPONSE HYMN 3

Womb of Life and Source of Being (verse 4)

ANTHEM

A New Commandment by Thomas Tallis

CHANCEL CHOIR

God Renews Us

SCRIPTURE

John 20:19-31

BLESSING

The Youth and the Congregation exchange the following blessing:

In body, mind, and spirit, may you be well this day.

And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.
The Last Beatitude

We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

What Wondrous Love Is This (verse 1)

No. 28, from 60 Pièces dévotionelles by Dom Paul Benoit, O.S.B.

Crown Him With Many Crowns (verse 4)

We could keep our treasures locked up where they never see the light of your love, or we can offer them back to you so that those who live in the shadows of poverty might be fed, those who walk the streets of loneliness find a community,
and those who long for peace
will find an end to the violence in their lives.
And so we open our hearts and our gifts in joyous praise to you.
Amen.

Many thanks to the congregation and Youth Connection for contributing enough hygiene items for 28 packets to go to newly arrived immigrants. The Youth Connection spent many hours sorting and packaging the items into "kits". Muchas Gracias! Judy Crawford

Saturday, May 11, 8am, Men’s Breakfast presents: Future Church: “The Gathering: a new model for an ancient spirituality.” Guest speaker, The Reverend Charles LaFond (charleslafon.net) will explore his Albuquerque-based house-church, the subject of his 4th book, inspired by a molting church. This model of gathering can support spirituality as Generations X and Y seek new forms of gathering, reduce or eliminate church funding, and reconsider ecclesial authority. In 15 years the church, based on quantifiable trends, will be very different. This new form of church is one answer to the church-molting reality we face. All are welcome. Contact John Whitcomb 982-3921 or visit church web page.
