Behold a transforming God who invites us to • a joyous way of being • a bolder way of believing • a deeper way of seeing

Be still and take time to • focus on the spiritual • restore your energy • experience God’s word in scripture, music, and art

Become followers of Jesus who are • open to God’s Spirit • trusting, welcoming, caring for one another • passionate about including everyone, confronting injustice, and healing the world

Parents of young children: We have prepared a box of activities for children who would like to use them during the service. Look for the blue boxes on the rooftop and at the back of the sanctuary if there is no teacher today or if your child chooses to stay with you.

Baritone Benjamin Taylor, returns to The Santa Fe Opera covering Zurga (The Pearl Fishers) and singing the Man’s Voice (Jenufa). Benjamin was a Resident Artist with Pittsburgh Opera for the past two seasons, where he performed Old Thompson (Glory Denied), Schaunard (La bohème), Sciarrone (Tosca), Brian (The Long Walk), Captain Gardiner (Moby-Dick), and covered Count Almaviva (The Marriage of Figaro) and Doctor Malatesta (Don Pasquale). Benjamin was a Gerdine Young Artist and Richard Gaddes Festival Artist at Opera Theatre of Saint Louis where he performed Fiorello (The Barber of Seville), Cowardly Giant (Shalimar the Clown), and Prince Yamadori (Madama Butterfly). He recently debuted with Madison Opera as Silvio (Pagliacci). Benjamin received his Master of Music from Boston University and Performer’s Certificate from the University’s Opera Institute. Mr. Taylor was a semi-finalist in the Eleanor McCollum Competition, and the recipient of the George London Foundation’s grand prize.

GOD CALLS US

PRELUDE How Fair and How Pleasant Art Thou
I Am Black but Comely,
O Ye Daughters of Jerusalem (Song of Solomon)
by Marcel Dupre

WELCOME

CALL to WORSHIP Sing a psalm to God, you faithful people;
Give thanks to God’s holy name.

God’s anger lasts for a moment,
God’s grace lasts for a lifetime.

Tears may linger through the night,
But joy comes in the morning.

You have turned my mourning to dancing,
You have clothed me with great joy.
I will sing to you without ceasing;
My God, I will praise you forever.

HYMN 506 Look Who Gathers at Christ’s Table!

OPENING PRAYER

Creator God, open our eyes so we can see you in the eyes of our immigrant brothers and sisters,
eyes downcast for having lived so long in the shadows,
eyes challenging us to join them in the streets or picket lines,
eyes lifted looking for the Christ light in us.

Compassionate God, who has come to dwell among us,
on our ears to hear the cries of your children.
— Silence is kept —
Tend your sick ones, O Christ,
Rest your weary ones,
Bless your dying ones,
Soothe your suffering ones,
Shield your joyous ones,
And all for your love’s sake.
Amen.

RESPONSE HYMN 722 Lord, Speak to Me That I May Speak (verse 4)

EXPRESSION of DEVOTION Music Funds Offering (envelopes are in the pew holders)

GOD RENEWS US

SCRIPTURE Luke 10:1-11

BLESSING The Youth and the Congregation exchange the following blessing:
In body, mind, and spirit, may you be well this day.
And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.
Seventy Went on Ahead

The Rev. Dr. Harry Eberts III

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

You are invited to come forward to light a prayer candle.

Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me (verse 1)

Steal Away

by H. T. Burleigh

Benjamin Taylor, baritone

Lord, Speak to Me That I May Speak (verse 5)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise . . .

With heavenly choirs and the faithful of every time and place we sing together:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Communion is by intinction: take a piece of bread and dip it in the chalice.
Gluten-free wafers and cups of juice are available on the Communion Table.

We welcome our visitors.

Dona nobis pacem, pacem. Dona nobis pacem.

Come, Labor On

Come, Labor On

Come, Labor On

Come, Labor On

Come, Labor On

Come, Labor On

FPC Creation Care, with United Church of Christ, presents Earth Care Weekend, Sept. 27-29. We are pleased to bring Dr. William Brown, Biblical Professor at Columbia Seminary and active Presbyterian, to FPC Sunday morning to preach at both services and lead an Adult Ed Class. He will be at UCC on Friday and Saturday. Some of us were privileged to hear Bill at Ghost Ranch as part of Larry Rasmussen’s Earth Honoring Faith Series and are thrilled that he will be with our congregations. More details to come! Mark your calendars now! You will be glad you did! Mary Ann Lundy

All-Church Fall Retreat, Sept. 27-29, Pecos Benedictine Monastery. 1,000 acres of tranquility, a place of healing and renewal, a time for fellowship and joy. Stay one or two nights ($85/night single, $150/night couple, meals included). This retreat is being planned by participants in last fall’s Ghost Ranch Retreat, and they invite you to join them for this restorative weekend. Contact Martin Carstarphen jmcarstarphen@gmail.com with questions or Delicia in the church office for reservations.

Beginning Thursday, July 11, the Chamber Music Festival parking lot will be in use by the CMF and its visiting artists every weekday as well as days and evenings every weekend. Please do not park in their parking lot during these times; there will be no parking available in the Festival parking lot for Sunday services beginning July 14.

Construction News: Griffin Street from Staab to Catron Streets will close from 4am-Noon on June 28 and July 1, 3, 8, and 12. Loading zones and the garage will be accessible.

As part of the Sacred Places grant, assessment of church repairs will begin Monday June 24 and work starts in July.

Please leave the church garage for church members with mobility restrictions. Others may use the Convention Center Garage. Stickers are available at the Lobby Desk to have parking costs charged to the Church.

For more information, see the weekly eNews, or contact Bill Adrian, 505-501-3453, facilities@fp santafe.org

Meet and Pray for Your Mission Co-Workers

Douglas Dicks — Israel and Palestine

Douglas in his role as facilitator and peacemaker works connecting PC(USA) congregations with indigenous Christians in the region. He supports US groups preparing for pilgrimages and study trips to the area to advocate for justice and Peace.

FPC opens our doors to welcome visitors attending festival weekends. We offer water, cool rest, and restrooms. Consider visiting the festival and then come to the church for an hour or two to host the appreciative folks who share our hospitality. We plan to be open for Spanish Market, Indian Market, and Fiesta. Sign-up sheet in the lobby.
