Behold a transforming God who invites us to • a joyous way of being • a bolder way of believing • a deeper way of seeing

Be still and take time to • focus on the spiritual • restore your energy • experience God’s word in scripture, music, and art

Become followers of Jesus who are • open to God’s Spirit • trusting, welcoming, caring for one another • passionate about including everyone, confronting injustice, and healing the world

Parents with young children: We have prepared a box of activities for children who would like to use them during the service. Look for the blue boxes on the rooftop and at the back of the sanctuary if there is no teacher today or if your child chooses to stay with you.

Caring for the Caregivers. Thursday, July 25, 10:30-11:30AM in the Rendon Room, I will host a conversation about meeting the needs of those who are caregivers in this congregation. If you are a caregiver, or want to know how we might care for those who are, please join us in this exploratory conversation. Pastor Harry

He will attend the Curtis Institute of Music for his Masters in Music. This year, Joseph was awarded The Rohatyn Great Promise 2nd Place Award in the Eastern Region Final of the Metropolitan Opera National Council Competition, as well as an Encouragement Award in Memory of Alfred Hubay from the George London Foundation. Please stand, as you are able.

We instinctively tend to limit for whom we exert ourselves. We do it for people like us, and for people whom we like. Jesus will have none of that. By depicting a Samaritan helping a Jew, Jesus could not have found a more forceful way to say that anyone at all in need — regardless of race, politics, class, or religion — is your neighbor.

God Calls Us

PRELUDE Adagio from the Fifth Symphony by Charles-Marie Widor

WELCOME Music Funds Offering (envelopes are in the pew holders)

CALL to WORSHIP bold in unison

God stands up in the divine assembly and gives judgment in the midst of the gods:

‘How long will you defend the unjust, and favor the cause of the wicked?’

‘Defend the poor and the orphaned! Render justice to the afflicted and oppressed!’

‘Rescue the weak and the poor! Set them free from the clutches of the wicked!’

Let us worship this God, this day!

HYMN 664 Morning Has Broken

OPENING PRAYER bold in unison

Holy God, we come together to worship, a people who would like to think that we love you with all our hearts and souls, with all our might.

Katie Cook, posted on Simple Living Works, adapted

In the silence, we seek your forgiveness for ourselves and healing for the world.

(Moment of quiet)

So here we are, standing before you today, with our human foibles and our short attention spans,

Asking that you would help us to recognize the presence of the Holy that you would continue to challenge us, inspire us, and make us into the people you want us to be. Amen.

RESPONSE HYMN 63 The Lord is God (verse 2)

EXPRESSION of DEVOTION Commissioning of Youth Connection Participants to Triennium
The Youth and the Congregation exchange the following blessing:
In body, mind, and spirit, may you be well this day.
And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.

But a Samaritan

What is the World Like

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

Abide with Me (verse 1)

If with All Your Hearts from Elijah

Joseph Tancredi, tenor

The Lord is God (verse 1)

We could hold onto our abundance, Generous God, or we could offer them to those who have been pushed aside,
those who need food and shelter, those who long for healing.
May the gifts we offer in these moments, in the name of Jesus,
be used for our neighbors. Amen.

We welcome our visitors.
