Rev. Dr. Harry W. Eberts III, Pastor

Behold  a transforming God who invites us to • a joyous way of being • a bolder way of believing • a deeper way of seeing

Be still  and take time to • focus on the spiritual • restore your energy • experience God’s word in scripture, music, and art

Become  followers of Jesus who are • open to God’s Spirit • trusting, welcoming, caring for one another • passionate about including everyone, confronting injustice, and healing the world

Parents with young children: We have prepared a box of activities for children who would like to use them during the service. Look for the blue boxes on the rooftop and at the back of the sanctuary if there is no teacher today or if your child chooses to stay with you.

WELCOME

CALL to WORSHIP  I will listen to what the Lord God is saying;  for you speak peace to your faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to you.
bold in unison  Psalm 85:8-10

Truly, your salvation is very near to those who fear you, that your glory may dwell in our land.

Steadfast love and faithfulness have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Let us worship God!

HYMN 54  Make a Joyful Noise to God!

OPENING PRAYER  Trusting in God’s forgiveness, let us in silence confess our failings and acknowledge our part in the pain of the world.
bold in unison  Iona Abbey Worship Book
pp. 64 and 131

—Silence is kept—
In gratitude for this moment, this place, those around us, Christ among us, we give ourselves to you our God.

Ask much of us, expect much from us, enable much by us, encourage many through us. Amen.

RESPONSE HYMN 464  Our Father, Which Art in Heaven (verse 1, 2, and 3)

God Renews Us

The Youth and the Congregation exchange the following blessing:
In body, mind, and spirit, may you be well this day.
And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.

Lord, Teach Us to Pray
The Rev. Dr. Harry Eberts III

Somebody's Knocking at Your Door

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

Seek Ye First (verse 1)

Arise, my Soul
Leia Lensing, mezzo soprano

Our Father, Which Art in Heaven (verses 4 and 5)

As you have done with us, may we do for others, holding nothing back, but offering our treasures and lives that hope may be restored,
that healing might touch the broken,
that the suffering might be revived,
and that all might know of your steadfast love in their lives.
This we pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

We welcome our visitors.

Dona nobis pacem, pacem. Dona nobis pacem.

Several weeks ago the Youth Connection sponsored the introduction of Prayer Request Cards to the worship services at First Presbyterian Church. You will find the cards in your pews, either with the offering envelopes or in the Friendship pads. One of the youth will pray for you and your confidential request. Place a completed card in the offering plate or in the basket by the door.

Earth Care Tidbit: Almond, oat and soy "milk" all have smaller greenhouse gas footprints than does cow’s milk, but the caveat is that almonds require a lot of water to grow. Soy is fairly low-impact if sustainably grown. NYTimes Climate Fwd: 5/8/19
