Wildlife Without Borders Movie Screening and Exclusive Directors Conversation
Wednesday, October 30, Pope Hall
Free Dinner @ 6pm
Movie Starts @ 6:30pm

Wildlife Without Borders tells the story of New Mexico’s iconic wildlife and the ways that they move and intersect our lands, our histories, and our cultures. Join us for stunning aerial footage and in-depth interviews from a diverse cast of wildlife advocates, tribal leaders, scientists, policy makers and public land users. Wildlife corridors offer a way of understanding New Mexico’s past and its future, insofar as intact corridors provide opportunities for wildlife to move to new habitat as climate change and human development threaten the old. The film will be followed by an interactive discussion with the film’s directors, Jordan and David Smith, and Andrew Black, National Wildlife Federation Public Lands Field Director. We will talk about what you can do to protect wildlife corridors in New Mexico and respond to America’s wildlife crisis. This film is co-sponsored by CAVU and EarthKeepers 360.

Bring a pumpkin and join us for an evening of painting and carving activities on October 30 from 3:00-6:00pm in the church lobby. We will have festive games and activities for the children along with a variety Halloween inspired treats! Interested in volunteering? We could use a few helpful hands with games and activities! All ages are welcomed!

All Saints’ Day, November 3: If you would like to recognize loved ones who have died in the last 12 months, please send the office (office @ fpcsantafe.org or 982.8544) their names along with their relationship to you by Friday morning, November 1. The choir will be singing Eleanor Daley's Requiem in memory of them, their names will be printed in the bulletin and read during the service.

We think sometimes that poverty is only being hungry, naked and homeless. The poverty of being unwanted, unloved and uncared for is the greatest poverty. We must start in our own homes to remedy this kind of poverty. Mother Teresa, Missionary and Saint

GOD CALLS US

PRELUDE
_Song of Peace_
by Jean Langlais

WELCOME

> INTROIT HYMN 386
_Come, Worship God_ (verse 1)

CALL to WORSHIP
bold in unison

from Psalm 31

You, O God, are my refuge.
Let me never be put to shame.

Set me free from the net spread to catch me,
for you are my protector.
Into your hands I commit my spirit.

Turn your face towards me,
with unfailing love defend me,
do not reject me when I call your name.

_Your goodness knows no limits;
it is kept for all who revere you and turn to you in their need._

HYMN 618
_O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High_

OPENING PRAYER
Please be seated
bold in unison

Trusting in God’s forgiveness,
let us in silence confess our failings
and acknowledge our part in the pain of the world.

—Silence is kept—

O God,
light of the minds that know you,
life of the souls that love you,
strength of the thoughts that seek you:

_Help us so to know you
that we may truly love you,
so to love you
that we may fully serve you,
whose service is perfect freedom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen._

RESPONSE HYMN 721

SCRIPTURE II Corinthians 8:9

BLESSING The Youth and the Congregation exchange the following blessing:
In body, mind, and spirit, may you be well this day.
And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.

MESSAGE The Gospel Mission Rev. Dr. Harry Eberts III

HYMN 694 Great God of Every Blessing

PRAYERS of the PEOPLE We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

SILENT MEDITATION and PRAYER CANDLES You are invited to come forward to light a prayer candle.

HYMN 729 Lord, I Want to Be a Christian (verse 1)

OFFERING

OFFERTORY No. 18, from 50 Élévations by Dom Paul Benoit, O.S.B.

RESPONSE HYMN 721 Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore (refrain)

PRAYER of DEDICATION If our lives, our love, our gifts are not shared with others, the words we offer in prayer and praise are hollow.
So receive what we offer, Holy God, and bless them in the work of that kingdom which values the people we ridicule, lifts up those we have stepped over, and brings hope and healing to all.
In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.

Lord, I Want to Be a Christian (verse 1)

by Dom Paul Benoit, O.S.B.
