NOV 18 Pledge Dedication Sunday
God Calls Us

When God wants to sort out the world, as the Beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount make clear, God doesn’t send in the tanks. God sends in the meek, the broken, the justice hungry, the peacemakers, the pure-hearted and so on.

from Psalm 15

God, who may live in your house?
Who may remain in your presence?

Whoever speaks the truth from the heart,
whose tongue is never used for slander.

God, who may live in your house?
Who may remain in your presence?

Whoever does no wrong to friends,
nor spread false rumors about neighbors.

Those who behave in this way will always remain secure.

They will live in God’s house,
they will remain in God’s presence.

Trusting in God’s forgiveness,
let us confess our failings
and acknowledge our part in the pain of the world.

— Silence is kept —

Holy God,
you confounded the world’s wisdom
by giving your kingdom to the lowly and pure in heart.

Give us such a hunger and thirst for justice
and perseverance in striving for peace,
that by our words and deeds
the world may see the promise of your kingdom, revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord.  Amen.

And may you be strong for the work of healing in the world.

Shall Tribulation or Distress

You are invited to come forward to light a prayer candle during the silence.

Kum Ba Yah

We pray for people and places, silently or aloud, and respond together:
May they know the deep peace of Christ.

No. 6, from 60 Pièces dévotionelles by Dom Paul Benoit, O.S.B.

♫ Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, with all thy quickening powers;
come, shed abroad a Savior’s love, and that shall kindle ours.

Whether out of our scarcity, or from our abundance, we pray that these gifts might offer life instead of despair, hope instead of grief, grace instead of fear to our sisters and brothers around us.
This we pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

♫ Dona nobis pacem, pacem
Dona nobis pacem.
