

Implicated Resistance

This capstone class will offer an opportunity to critically reflect on and discuss what we have learned, our gifts and strengths individually and as a community, as well as areas we need to continue to grow to become more loving, compassionate, and justice-oriented individuals and community members. Rev, Andrew Black will use some ancient narratives to help us dive deeper into these topics.

Class Assignments

To prepare for Friday's class:

- Review the list of our past classes as listed on our Racism and White Privilege and our Dismantling Racism webpages and jot down notes on what you remember learning and the impact the new knowledge it had on you. <https://fpcsantafe.org/racism-and-white-privilege/> and <https://fpcsantafe.org/dismantling-racism/>
- Review Dismantling Systemic Racism. As time permits, watch the presentation that Gale Wright and Dennis Sanderson made to the Adult Ed class to give you a review of the first six months of our classes. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dVvtXhLGU08&t=2s>
- Reflect on what you have learned over the past year and how it has impacted your attitudes and behaviors.
