Jesus calls us
to praise and prayer — to song and silence;
Jesus calls us to worship.

Jesus calls us
to hearing and healing — to service and solidarity;
Jesus calls us to love.

Jesus calls us
to advocacy and action — to protest and provision;
Jesus calls us to justice.

Let us heed the call of Christ.
Let us worship together with joy.

Please be seated.

OPENING PRAYER
Iona Abbey Worship Book, 2001
pp. 51-52

(bold in unison)

Eternal God, maker of the skies above,
lowly Christ, born amidst the growing earth,
Spirit of life, wind over the flowing waters,
in earth, sea, and sky,
you are there.

O hidden mystery,
sun behind all suns,
soul behind all souls,

   in everything we touch,
   in everyone we meet,
   your presence is around us,
   and we give you thanks.

But when we have not touched
but trampled you in creation,
when we have not met
but missed you in one another,
when we have not received
but rejected the poor,

   forgive us,
   and hear now our plea for mercy.

~ Silence is kept ~

Hear now the words of Jesus
for all who are truly sorry
and seek to renew their lives:
Your sins are forgiven.
Go in peace;
Come and follow me.

   Lead us now, O God,
   to acknowledge your costly generosity
   by living as forgiven people,
   until heaven and earth rejoice
   and the whole earth cries Glory!
   through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN 306
Blest Be the Tie That Binds
verse 1

HEARING

A READING from the GOSPELS
Mark 1: 14-20 (NRSV)

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the good news of God and saying,

“The time is fulfilled,
and the kingdom of God has come near;
repent, and believe in the good news.”

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers. And Jesus said to them,

“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.”

And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets.

Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

and John 7: 37-38
Music:  Malcolm Archer

Chancel Choir

I saw the river of the water of life, bright as a crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb
through the middle of the street of the city.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Let everyone who is thirsty come.
Let anyone who wishes
take the water of life as a gift.
Alleluia…
