OPENING PRAYER
(bold in unison)

by Thom M. Shuman
lectionaryliturgies.blogspot.com

Each morning,
we put on
those comfortable garments
of burdens and worries,
but now they are gone!

Each day,
we walk through life,
our good and faithful friend,
death,
at our side,
constantly whispering
in our ears,
but now he has disappeared!

Each evening,
we empty our fears
out of our pockets,
leaving them on top of the dresser,
but now, they have been taken away!

We could continue to live
in the same old ways,
the same old days,
but now, resurrection life is ours,
and we can sing, dance, and rejoice with you,
God in Community,
Holy in One.
Amen.

HEARING

A READING from the GOSPELS

John 20: 1-18 (NRSV)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in.

Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’s head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed, for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?”

She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?”

Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.”

God of great gifts:

This morning we give you praise,
we give you glory,
we give you thanks!

With resurrection humming in our hearts,
our minds are tuned to your song of peace!

We joyfully present these gifts to you,
a tangible chorus of thanksgiving,
a harmony of hope for your kingdom come!

Amen.
