All Saints' Sunday

We are happy you have joined us today as we acknowledge and give thanks for loved ones, friends, and members of our community who passed away this past year.

We will remember them with music, prayers, banners, beeswax candles to light in their memory, and by saying their names between stanzas of the final hymn, For All the Saints. You may add other names, either silently or aloud, before the last verse.

The Chancel Choir will sing songs from Lux Aeterna by Morten Lauridsen which will be interwoven between the parts of the liturgy.

PRELUDE Introitus from Lux Aeterna Morton Lauridsen
Chancel Choir

WELCOME Rev. Dr. Harry Eberts

‡ Please stand, as you are able.

‡ HYMN 15 All Creatures of Our God and King (vs 1-4)

‡ OPENING PRAYER (bold in unison) Janis Chitwood

We remember the great ancestors of our faith,
from Abraham and Sarah, to Paul and Phoebe:

Ancestors of the faith, we remember you.

We remember the prophets and priests,
the ministers and teachers who have taught us the way of God:

Teachers of the faith, we remember you.

We remember our grandparents and parents, aunts and uncles,
those who have gone before us in our lifetime:

Family of our faith, we remember you.

We lift up the memories of children and grandchildren,
brothers and sisters, husbands and wives and parents
whose lives ended too soon:

Those close in our heart, we remember you.

Family of God, we remember you, and we honor you.

We know you are with us in the spirit of worship,
and you will not be forgotten.

We give thanks, O God, for all who have gone on to join with You beyond this life.
We trust in the hope of resurrection
and the promise of new life in Christ,
and know that in our grief and celebration, O God,
You are with us through it all, and we are not left alone.
In the name of Christ, in whom love lives forever, we pray. Amen.

TIME WITH OUR CHILDREN

‡ HYMN

This Little Light of Mine

‡ BLESSING

In body, mind, and spirit,
may you be well this day.
And may you be strong
for the work of healing in the world.

COMMUNION

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise...

With heavenly choirs and the faithful of every time and place we say together:

SANCTUS HYMN 552
