

Save These Dates: October 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30!
10:30 a.m. to Noon

As we approach the end of the campaign season and cast our votes to elect our next President, many of us may be feeling ill-at-ease, somewhat nervous, and more than a little anxious. No matter the outcome in November, it is safe to say that each of us wants to move forward in peace – with ourselves and with our neighbors, in our nation and in our world.

In that light, Westminster Presbyterian Church has scheduled a five-session Forum for Peace entitled “The Things That Make For Peace.” The curriculum comes to us from the Presbyterian Mission Agency of the PCUSA. Lay leaders will facilitate the forum with assistance from clergy from within Westminster and outside it.

The forum will be held in-person in Westminster’s Koinonia Hall each of the five Wednesdays in October from 10:30 a.m. until noon. Members and friends from other congregations, as well as those who may not be part of any congregation, are invited. We hope to see you there!
